Richard Oelze, Expectation (Erwartung), 1935

Zarathustra said: I teach you the Superman. Man is something that should be overcome. What have you done to overcome him?

And even you have often asked yourselves: Who is Zarathustra to us? what shall we call him? and like me, you answer your own questions with questions.

Is he promiser? Or fulfiller? A conqueror? Or an inheritor?
A harvest? Or a ploughshare? A physician? Or a convalescent?
Is he a poet? Or a genuine man? A liberator? Or a subduer?
A good man? Or an evil man?
